Historian Hours

Since my last report, I have spent 12 hours in the office. There have been an additional 16 hours of Historian duties completed outside of the Historian Office for a total of 28 hours.

Old Business that continues

1. Updating filing continues as well as preserving historical documents.

New Business

1. Working as Afton Historian and D.A.R. Registrar & Vocal link – I have been working on researching and establishing volunteers and committees for America 250 Celebrations.
2. Planning events for the Historian, this will be a new thing again this year as the prior 3 years no events by the historian have been held due to COVID.
3. Youth Group for America 250 utilized Historian Records to make plans for America 250 celebrations.

Research Requests

1. Underground Railroad (if any) in Afton NY
2. American Revolution Soldier Burial Spots (Continues)
3. Bumps Creek Steel Bridge (Continues)
4. Stage Coach Relay Station & Old Stage Coach Road (Continues)
5. Miniature flags flown by Tom Vails family members at the Parade celebrating the end of WWI
6. Requests for Cemetery information
7. Pictures received from Trudy Harris-Irons

Sincerely, Mel. Hager, Afton Historian.

Hope to see you next meeting.
